Dear Praying Friends, These are days of uncertainty. Perhaps as never before, we feel vulnerable, insecure and uneasy. It shows in our relationships at work, in the home and at church. We may feel more anxious, impatient, irritable, tense and unsettled. Causes for the restlessness may be our frustration with the circumstances surrounding COVID and the uncertainty of how all of this will affect our health, our employment and the overall economy in the future. We are in desperate need of peace and assurance. Jesus' words to his disciples the evening before He would be crucified, bring us comfort (John 14,27) "Peace I give you. I do not give to you as the world gives. Do not let your hearts be troubled and do not be afraid." May the peace that Jesus offers you, which surpasses all understanding, be yours today and in the days ahead! John and Lynn
